Ga. House District 35 Candidate Lisa Campbell Endorsed by Georgia Equality

Campbell pledges to advance fairness, safety, and opportunity for LGBTQ+ Georgians

ATLANTA, (September 6, 2022) — Today, Ga. House District 35 candidate Lisa Campbell was endorsed by Georgia Equality for her commitment to promote legislation in Georgia's General Assembly that will protect the rights of LGBTQ+ Georgians and promote fairness, safety, and opportunity for all.

"One of the core values of my campaign is that I am running for office to be a voice for expanding equity, liberty, freedom, and justice for all Georgia citizens. Sadly, Georgia has some of the weakest civil rights protections in the entire country. Georgia has no law to prevent private employers, businesses, or landowners from discriminating against employees, customers, or potential renters/homebuyers on the basis of race, religion, sexual orientation, or gender identity. This is fundamentally wrong," Campbell stated. "If Georgia is to remain a vital, attractive, top-tier location for tourism, business growth, educational opportunity, and population growth, its leadership in the General Assembly must ensure that all of our citizens are equally protected under the law."
